Sport, Infrastructure and Training

Why Cairns!

As a tropical city, Cairns has an amazing climate, just perfect for all kinds of sports and outdoor activities. There are more than 400 sport and recreational clubs and facilities across the Cairns region taking in competitive leagues in at least 30 sports.

Sporting Facilities

Sports training is a rapidly growing industry that capitalizes on Cairns' natural assets plus international standard venues such as Tobruk Swimming pool and the nearby Hockey Fields, these have been used by local and elite athletes as training venues preparing for national and international competitions.

For those who prefer tennis, there is the International Tennis Centre which has hosted the Davis Cup and other national and state events.

National Rugby League and Rugby Union are not left out with the Barlow Park facilities hosting state, national and international teams. This Multi use facility is also home to track and field and other events.

Basketball has a home at the Cairns Convention Centre, hosting the Cairns Taipans who play in the Australian NBA league.

Cycling is a big sport here, whether it is on the BMX track at Smithfield or for the Ironman and triathlons, or one of the many road races and endurance riding races held in Cairns every year.

The Cairns Region excels at staging high profile sporting events and is recognised for hosting many big events like the Targa Car Rally, World Mountain Bike championships and the Ironman Asia Pacific Championships just to name a few.

Sports Training

With a tropical climate similar to the Pacific, Cairns offers international standard infrastructure and professionals, skilled in sports services to pre-train athletes, why not take advantage of the benefits of heat training here to prepare for upcoming international sporting events such as the Pan Pacific Masters Games in 2022; the 2025 Pacific Games or perhaps the 2032 Summer Olympic Games to be held in Brisbane.

It doesn't matter whether you exercise for health and fitness or are an elite athlete, or which sport you follow, you'll find like-minded athletes here to practice and train with. Cairns has trainers and coaching staff for a wide variety of sports who are top notch, for beginners through to professionals.

So whether you are an Olympian, or just starting out, an individual or part of a team why not consider coming to Cairns for your sports training or to start your sports career, we are happy to be a part of your sporting life.

Come and join us for a fun run on the Esplanade, or swim at our pools, work out in any of the many gyms and training facilities in the city. You are always welcome.

Why Cairns? Why not? There is nothing to lose and everything to gain.
